Discover your wild

Nkasiri Adventure Park, nestled in the scenic landscapes in Kitengela, Kenya, stands as a testament to thrilling outdoor adventure combined with a deep commitment to environmental sustainability.

As a proudly "green park," Nkasiri actively integrates eco-friendly practices into its core operations, ensuring a memorable experience for guests that also respects and preserves our natural heritage.

Nkasiri has over time been twisted for a Swahili word "Ka-siri" ( a small secret) loosely translated to Ni-kasiri , a perfect hideout where people go to play, dine, adventure and discover their wild.
